WELCOME

Welcome to CHC Teacher Education. You have just joined the best profession in the world, and we are delighted to be part of your formation as a teacher!

There is a saying that everybody remembers a good teacher, and no doubt you have been inspired by extraordinary teachers during your time at school or since graduating from a tertiary course. What we know about such people is they have a capacity to touch the heart of the student and draw out a positive and purposeful response to their learning. Good teachers inspire and give courage, as well as challenge their students to excel. The entire team at the School of Education and Humanities wish to support you to become such a teacher.

Of the many universities and higher education providers available, you have chosen CHC. We are distinctly Christian in our approach and openly, and intentionally, acknowledge Christ as the most important part of our College life. This flows into our personal, professional and academic work collectively and individually. We acknowledge that God is the creator and sustainer of all things and that through faith in Christ we can have a personal relationship with him. Christ, through the Holy Spirit transforms us from within to serve as stewards of God's amazing creation. We therefore encourage you to enjoy these years of study and take time for spiritual reflection as well as academic growth; at CHC we see them as integral to each other. Take time to explore what it means to be in a loving relationship with a personal God and to outwork that through your professional calling as a teacher.

Teaching is a wonderfully diverse calling. Teacher education at CHC will provide you with subject knowledge as well as the pedagogical understandings, knowledge and skills required to teach in the exciting world of education and schooling in the future. Most importantly, you will gain an understanding of how learning occurs and how you can engineer opportunities for each student to learn.

A teaching professional will also provide you with valuable management skills as well as many opportunities for leadership and international work. For some, teaching is a call to mission and service to those in need, while for others it might mean aspiring to senior leadership and influencing our nation at the highest level.

From this point on we will not see you as just a student, but rather, as a novice teacher. To be a good teacher you will need to challenge the assumptions, habits and traditions that have shaped you through your own schooling experience. This includes ideas about the purpose of schools, of teaching and curriculum and particularly the nature of the child. Your beliefs will govern your teaching. We will therefore ask you to constantly reflect on your teaching practice against nationally agreed standards and to develop a reflective disposition that will help you continually improve throughout your career. CHC would also value an ongoing relationship with you during your future professional life.

This Handbook is a great tool and includes important information that will help make your time at CHC positive and productive. Read it, refer to it, and do not hesitate to contact our friendly administration staff if you have further queries. They will happily direct your inquiry to the most appropriate person.

We very much look forward to meeting you personally and getting to know you. Most importantly, we want you to become one of those great teachers your students will remember forever!

Unity and Maturity in the Body of Christ (Ephesians 4:1-16)

¹*As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. ²Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. ³Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace. ⁴There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to one hope when you were called; ⁵one Lord, one faith, one baptism; ⁶one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all. ⁷But to each one of us grace has been given as Christ apportioned it. ⁸This is why it says:*

“When he ascended on high, he took many captives and gave gifts to his people.”

⁹(What does “he ascended” mean except that he also descended to the lower, earthly regions? ¹⁰He who descended is the very one who ascended higher than all the heavens, in order to fill the whole universe.) ¹¹So Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, ¹²to equip his people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up ¹³until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.

¹⁴Then we will no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of people in their deceitful scheming. ¹⁵Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of him who is the head, that is, Christ. ¹⁶From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work.

Dr Craig Murison
Dean, School of Education, Humanities and Business

For up-to-date information, please check the Calendar and Important Dates on the Documents page of the CHC website on a regular basis as dates are subject to change.

1.2 Contacting staff

From time to time you will need to make contact with staff and it is important to know who can best help you with your query. Generally speaking, for academic questions relating to your study you should contact the lecturer responsible for the unit. For other questions, you should identify the person who is responsible for that area. For this reason, you need to be familiar with the following list of staff members and their roles.

Administration Office

The School Administration Office is available to help students with general questions, and to direct you to the right person when you are unsure about what to do. The staff of the School Administration Office are available to assist with general questions such as enrolment, course matters, assessment issues and extensions to assessment due dates. They are also available for making appointments with some of the School staff.

Administration Officer: Ada Steyn (education@chc.edu.au or asteyn@chc.edu.au).

Faculty Course Coordinator – all courses

The Faculty Course Coordinator is responsible for assisting Education students with their unit selection and progress through their courses. If you wish to make an appointment with the Faculty Course Coordinator, please contact the School Administration Office.

Queries related to individual units should first be directed to lecturers.

Faculty Course Coordinator: Peter Collins (PCollins@chc.edu.au)

Year Level Coordinators – Bachelor courses

Year Level Coordinators are available to students in the Bachelor courses to help with aspects such as study and time management skills and understanding assessment requirements.

Queries related to individual units should first be directed to lecturers.

- Year 1 Coordinator: Robyn Press (RPress@chc.edu.au)
- Year 2 Coordinator: Debra Ayling (DAyling@chc.edu.au)
- Year 3 Coordinator: Debra Ayling (DAyling@chc.edu.au)
- Year 4 Coordinator: Paul Willis (PWillis@chc.edu.au)

Professional Experience Program Office – ITE courses

The Professional Experience Program (PEP) Office looks after arrangements regarding the professional experience components of the Bachelor of Education and Master of Teaching courses, such as organising school-based professional experiences and verifying the completion of the required number of days of wider field experiences. The PEP Office also looks after blue card applications (see Section 1.5 below).

- Professional Experience Program Coordinator: Peter Wilkinson (PEP@chc.edu.au)
- PEP Placement Officer: Candace Murison (PEP@chc.edu.au)

1.3 Mid-year entry

Mid-year entry is offered into all Education courses.

Study programs for mid-year entry have been devised through a re-sequencing of existing units. If you start mid-year, you should be aware of the differences in the sequencing of units for your course and any subsequent differences in the length of the course as a result of entering mid-year. Pre-service teachers entering Bachelor courses mid-year are required to have a blue card before they commence the course (see Section 1.5 below). Further information regarding mid-year entry to courses is available from the Faculty Course Coordinator.

1.4 Blue card requirements

Legal requirement in Queensland

CHC is committed to the safety and wellbeing of the school communities with which our students interact as part of its professional experience programs, as well as maintaining compliance with its obligations under the law with regards to child protection.

It is a requirement under Queensland law for any student entering into a professional experience placement bringing them into contact with children or young people to have a valid blue card prior to commencing their placement. Any student that does not have a valid blue card will not be permitted to commence their placement.

Recent changes to the blue card system in Queensland in 2020 have strengthened the requirements of workers requiring a blue card prior to commencing work with children, as well as compliance arrangements around the sighting of ID and linking of card holders to organisations.

All Bachelor and Master initial teacher education students must obtain a blue card issued by the Blue Card Services department of the Queensland government before engaging in any activities in their course involving children or young people in Queensland (<https://www.bluecard.qld.gov.au/>).

Obtaining a Blue Card

Upon accepting their offer to study, students must contact the PEP Office (pep@chc.edu.au) to commence the blue card process to allow sufficient time for processing applications before their first school-based professional experience placement. Students who will be completing child related activities outside of Queensland because of where they reside should likewise contact the PEP Office upon accepting their offer to study to discuss the Working with Children Check process in that jurisdiction.

To be eligible to apply for a blue card, students must have a customer reference number (CRN) from the Queensland Department of Transport and Main Roads (TMR). Students are asked to either bring the required identification documents to the campus and have these sighted by the authorised placements officer in the PEP Office, or to provide copies of the documents that are certified by a Justice of the Peace, Commissioner for Declarations, Lawyer or Police Officer, together with the application form for processing.

If a student does not have a CRN, or their photograph was taken more than 6 years and 9 months ago, they are required to visit a TMR customer service centre to have their photograph taken and/or obtain a CRN so that an application can be completed and submitted through CHC.

If a student is coming from interstate, or overseas to complete a placement in a Queensland school, they must visit a TMR service centre when they arrive in Queensland. If they have the required identification documents, TMR can take a photograph and issue a CRN so that an application can be completed and submitted through CHC by the authorised placements officer.

Once the completed application forms have been received by the PEP Office together with sighted or certified copies of identification documents, these are submitted by the authorised placements officer using the blue card system organisation portal.

Blue Cards issued with respect to another organisation

If a student has already been issued with a blue card by another organisation, they can provide authorisation to CHC supported by the required identification documents to link them to CHC. This process can be completed by the authorised placements officer using the organisation portal.

Working with children in other Australian jurisdictions

Where any child-related activities take place in another Australian jurisdiction, students will need to complete additional Working with Children Checks as required by the relevant government agency in that jurisdiction. Certified copies of interstate clearances for working with children must be provided by the student to the authorised placements officer in the PEP Office before commencing the interstate placement.

Students' responsibility to maintain currency of blue card/working with children check

Students are responsible for ensuring the currency of their blue card and any other necessary Working with Children Checks throughout the duration of their course and must complete any requirements for renewal in a timely fashion.

If a student is ineligible to receive a Queensland blue card (and/or similar Working with Children Check clearance in another Australian jurisdiction), or has their existing blue card (and/or similar Working with Children Check clearance in another Australian jurisdiction) revoked in accordance with law, they will be precluded from engaging in any child related activities as part of their course of study at CHC until such time as the blue card (and/or similar Working with Children Check clearance in another Australian jurisdiction) is reinstated. This may give rise to other action under CHC policies in relation to the continuation of the student's course of study at CHC.

1.5 Literacy and Numeracy Test for Initial Teacher Education Students (LANTITE)

The Literacy and Numeracy Test for Initial Teacher Education Students (LANTITE) is a requirement for the successful completion of CHC initial teacher education courses.

Students who are enrolled in the Bachelor of Education (Primary), Bachelor of Education (Secondary) and Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Education (Secondary) are strongly encouraged to sit LANTITE as soon as possible after completing the unit CR111 Introduction to Cross-Curricular Literacies, as the knowledge and understanding engaged with in this unit will assist with preparing for the test.

Students who are enrolled in the Master of Teaching courses must sit LANTITE in Semester 1 of the course (full time equivalent). Master of Teaching students must successfully complete LANTITE by the end of Year 1 of the courses (full time equivalent) in order to be permitted to progress into Year 2 of the courses.

Testing centres are located in all capital cities and a number of metropolitan and regional locations. Students who live more than 90 minutes from a testing centre are able to access the test online via remote invigilation. For information regarding registering for the test and the fees payable, as well as answers to frequently asked questions, please check the LANTITE website at <https://teacheredtest.acer.edu.au>.

1.6 Course completion

Successfully completing an Education course involves a number of components, all of which must be finalised prior to graduation.

For all Bachelor and Master initial teacher Education courses, the following are required:

- successful completion of all core units and all elective units (as applicable) to attain the number of credit points required for the course;
- fulfilment of the course rules in the selection of units for majors and minors (as applicable);
- successful completion of the Literacy and Numeracy Test for Initial Teacher Education Students (LANTITE);
- submission of an Evidence Folio which provides evidence that the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers (graduate level) have been demonstrated; and
- evidence of completion of the required days of field experiences, including school-based professional experiences units and, where applicable, school-based internship.

For all other postgraduate Education courses, the following general requirements apply to course completion:

- successful completion of all core units;
- successful completion of elective units to attain the required number of credit points for the course; and
- fulfilment of the course rules in the selection of units.

1.7 Applying for teacher registration

Registration with the Queensland College of Teachers (QCT) is a requirement for employment as a teacher in Queensland, under the Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Act October 2005. Students who complete initial teacher education courses can apply to the QCT for registration as a teacher in Queensland.

Applications for teacher registration cannot be finalised by the QCT until advice is received from CHC that a student has completed an initial teacher education course. Students will also need to provide other information and fulfil additional requirements to gain registration in Queensland, as advised by the QCT. These additional requirements may include (but are not limited to):

- evidence of English language proficiency;
- successful completion of any pre-registration testing (as required); and
- information about prior qualifications (for Master of Teaching students).

The QCT also requires that applicants for teacher registration be screened through a national criminal history check. Any students concerned about this should contact the QCT for further details (www.qct.edu.au).

SECTION 2: TEACHING AND LEARNING PRACTICES

2.1 Academic integrity

2.2 Attendance and participation

2.3 Workload

The School of Education and Business is committed to quality teaching and learning in all of its courses. We believe that teaching and learning is a relational process that involves the intersection of three important factors: the lecturer, the students and the subject matter at hand. Effective learning happens at the point where these three relate to one another in deep engagement. This means that you, the student, play a vital role in the learning process and we encourage you to give your whole 'heart, mind, soul and strength' to the process (Romans 12:1-2; Luke 10:27).

2.1 Academic integrity

The academic staff values critical thinking and a comprehensive and well-founded academic knowledge base on which you can develop sound philosophical, theoretical and practical foundations for teaching. This means that the School is committed to creating a positive environment where you can work and learn and to encouraging all students to reach their potential. It also means that we are committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity.

To ensure that this happens, the following definition of academic integrity has been adopted: 'a commitment, even in the face of adversity, to five fundamental values: honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility' (Center for Academic Integrity, 1999, p.4). These values are evidenced by:

- expecting honesty in academic work, both personally and professionally, for teaching and learning, research and service,
- promoting trust by presenting clear guidelines and procedures for all academic work,
- exercising fairness by declaring and applying clear and accurate expectations and standards in relation to all academic work,
- respecting and valuing the academic freedom of staff and students to hold and justify a diverse range of opinions and ideas, and
- expecting all members of the CHC community to be responsible for sustaining the integrity of the scholarship of teaching and learning, research and service and to take action when academic integrity is compromised.

(adapted from The Center for Academic Integrity [CAI] 1999, The Fundamental Values of Academic Integrity)

In order to help students to uphold these values, seven core activities of quality academic practice have been identified. It is important that you are aware of and practice these activities in all of your learning and assessment work as these practices will help you to be successful in all that you do. The following table lists and explains these practices:

Quality academic practices
Actively engaging in scholarly and research activities through personal reading and research and appropriate discussions with others, either face-to-face and/or online.	When undertaking your studies, you need to research information and read about the topic and about the way you need to write and present the task. It is not acceptable to rely on information collected by others. It is your responsibility to engage with the work of the unit. When preparing your assessment items, it is also very useful to talk with others about the task to clarify your thoughts and ideas as well as extend your learning.
Engaging with the relevant academic literature at the depth and breadth expected of the level of the unit being undertaken.	When undertaking an assessment task, you need to use a range academic literature. This may include textbooks, reference books, journal articles, reports, research articles (all available through the Library) and websites. Some of the sources may be journal articles or reports which have been published online. You must ensure that you have used a range of sources, not just one type of source. For example, an assessment task which uses only websites would be likely to fail criteria regarding academic literature as it would not meet the required depth and breadth of sources.
Maintaining appropriate records of all sources used in the development of academic work.	When collecting information for your assessment tasks you must keep a record of all the information you will need to correctly reference your sources. When you start taking notes from a book, or any source, the first thing you should do is take down the referencing details for inclusion in the reference list and in-text referencing.
Preparing academic work that is substantially written in one's own words.	When writing your assignment, you need to take the information you have gathered and write it into your own words, ensuring you acknowledge where the information has come from by using in-text references. It is not acceptable to string together a series of quotes with a few of your own words in between, even if you use in-text references. Remember that lengthy quotes should be used sparingly in your work.
Providing in-text references and developing reference lists that acknowledge the contribution of the work of others in the development of academic work.	It is essential to acknowledge where you found your information and audio-visual resources used. The authors, artists, photographers and producers you use in your learning have put a great deal of time and effort into publishing their work and they deserve acknowledgement for their contributions. To give them this credit you should reference the information and other artefacts (such as images, sounds and videos) by using in-text referencing and a reference list. It is very important that this referencing is done according to the required style. Information regarding referencing is available on the CHC website.
Attending to the requirements regarding the presentation of the relevant assessment genre.	It is important that you know what is required by each of the assessment genres. For example, what does an essay require? How should you present a report? What is a learning plan? You also need to make sure that you are aware of how the task is to be submitted; either on paper or electronically. Each assessment task will be accompanied by a guide and a rubric that outline the requirements of the task. Make sure that you are clear on the genre and other requirements. If you are unsure, be certain to ask your lecturer.
Securing all paper and electronic copies of academic work to minimise the opportunity for inappropriate academic practice by others.	When you are working on your assessment you need to ensure that other students cannot copy or modify your work. Do not share your electronic files with other students and make sure that you do not leave your flash drive or an open electronic file on a CHC computer where others may be able to access to your work. You also need to make sure that the paperwork used in the construction of your assessment task is kept in such a way that it cannot be taken and misused by another student. Do not leave printed copies of your assessment tasks lying around and be careful about how you dispose of copies you no longer need.

2.2 Attendance and participation

In addition to the information contained in Section 7.1 of the CHC Student Handbook, the following applies to units in the initial teacher education courses:

Students who are enrolled in initial teacher education courses are being prepared for a career and ministry in learning and teaching and it is therefore paramount that students accept responsibility for maximising their learning by engaging in the learning opportunities and activities of their courses.

The following attendance and participation guidelines relate to students in Education courses. It is students' responsibility to ensure that they are fully aware of these requirements and to fulfil them.

Internal mode

The School of Education and Business is committed to upholding the value of class attendance for units in initial teacher education courses that are delivered in the internal mode. This includes units that are delivered as intensives. The following regulations relate to units being studied in the internal mode:

- Students are expected to attend at least 80% of class time unless a reason for absence (such as illness, traffic hold-ups, mechanical breakdown, attendance at family ceremonies) has been accepted by the lecturer.
- Students are required to fulfil at least 80% attendance to be considered eligible for supplementary assessment tasks.
- Students who cannot attend a class should contact the lecturer concerned within three days of the absence.
- Students should provide documentation (such as a medical certificate) to substantiate reasons for extended absences. This documentation should be lodged with the Administration Officer (Education) within one week of the absence. The administration staff will notify all lecturing staff concerned.

External/online mode

Students must satisfactorily participate in unit activities in order to successfully complete a unit. 'Satisfactory participation' varies between units; however, the following are examples:

- weekly interaction with Moodle page(s) especially viewing and downloading of material;
- downloading/streaming lecture content and/or video;
- posting and participation in unit forums;
- virtual class engagement through on-line/interactive class activities and discussions; and
- digital communication with the lecturer.

Students must satisfactorily participate in unit activities in order to be considered eligible for supplementary assessment tasks.

Professional Experience Program (PEP) units

Attendance is compulsory for formal aspects of the Professional Experience Program, such as school-based professional experiences or wider field experiences arranged by a lecturer. These activities are part of the required number of professional experience days mandated under national course accreditation rules and by the Queensland College of Teachers (QCT). The following regulations apply to attendance at formal Professional Experience Program (PEP) activities:

- Students who are unable to attend a PEP activity must:
 - contact the PEP Coordinator or lecturer concerned on the day of the activity (or sooner if possible); and
 - telephone the school or organisation concerned at least an hour before they are scheduled to attend to notify the Site Coordinator and their mentors.

- Reasons for absence such as illness, traffic hold-ups, mechanical breakdown, attendance at family ceremonies, etc., may be accepted by the PEP Coordinator.
- If the absence is for medical reasons and extends beyond one day, a medical certificate must be presented to the school and the PEP Office.
- Arrangements must be made by the preservice teacher with the PEP Coordinator and supervising teacher to make up the lost days in the school in order to fulfil the requirements set by the QCT.

Failure to attend the required activities without following these regulations will result in failure of the unit to which the activities are attached.

2.3 Workload

At CHC, each unit is given a credit point (cp) weighting. Standard units have a weighting of 10 credit points. Each 10-credit point unit has an EFTSL value of 0.125 (see the EFTSL Values for Units of Study information sheet on the CHC website for further details), and a minimum semester workload of 150 hours.

A number of units in the Education courses have non-standard weightings. Units that have a weighting of 20 credit points have an EFTSL value of 0.25 and a minimum semester workload of 300 hours.

The semester workload includes aspects such as scheduled contact time, personal study, preparation of assessment tasks, examinations and professional experience placement (as applicable). Unit outlines include a breakdown of these aspects as they apply to each unit.

A full-time study load in the Education courses is 40 credit points per semester, or 80 credit points per year. If you undertake full-time study, it is important that you are careful about the other paid and voluntary commitments that you make. Personal and work commitments are generally not considered valid reasons for receiving alternate assessment or examination arrangements, or extensions of due dates.

Occasionally, students need or want to take more than a full-time load. This may be approved where students have demonstrated successful completion of a normal full-time load. Students wishing to take overload should consult the relevant Course Coordinator in order to seek approval for the planned program.

Part-time students in the initial teacher education courses normally undertake one or two units per semester with an equivalent workload per unit. Again, it is important that you are careful about other paid and voluntary commitments that you make as personal and work commitments are generally not considered valid reasons for receiving alternate assessment or examination arrangements, or extensions of due dates.

The postgraduate continuing teacher education courses are available on a part-time basis only, with a maximum enrolment of two units per semester.

SECTION 3: ASSESSMENT PRACTICES

- 3.1 Assessment information
- 3.2 Submission of assessment tasks
- 3.3 Calculation of exit results

3.1 Assessment information

All assessment in the Education courses is linked to the philosophical, theoretical and practical foundations of the discipline of education. This means that the tasks that you undertake as students are designed to authentically engage you with the work of educators at a personal, professional and academic level.

All assessment requirements are communicated to students through the unit outline and the assessment elaborations within the unit outline. The assessment may be further supported through an Assessment Guide, task sheet or similar prepared by lecturing staff. This written information is provided to preservice teachers through the unit's Moodle page prior to the end of Week 1. In addition to this written information, lecturers may also unpack assessment tasks through sessions within lecturer or tutorials. It the preservice teacher's responsibility engage with assessment written material and assessment tutorials or sessions.

All Education lecturers will provide preservice teachers with a unit outline which includes:

- Assessment summary: includes brief information about the assessment type, genre, word count and weighting of each task. It also includes an indication of the link between the assessment tasks and the learning outcomes you must demonstrate.
- Assessment Elaborations: includes more detailed information about the requirements of the individual assessment tasks and how to go about completing them. It also provides information and advice about requirements that must be met to pass a unit and avoiding inappropriate academic practice.
- Rubrics: outlines the criteria and standards expected for each assessment task. The criteria are the things that the marker will be looking for you to demonstrate and the standards provide information about the level of expectation for each criterion.
- Feedback: includes judgements about your submitted work against the rubric and written comments either in the paper or with the rubric in order to indicate the strengths and weaknesses of your work.

3.2 Submission of assessment tasks

Students are to follow the guidelines for the submission of assessment tasks found in the CHC Student Handbook. However, the following additional information should also be taken into consideration.

- Turnitin – Turnitin is the online submission method that is used at CHC. Your lecturer will post submission portals for each unit task through Moodle.
- Turnitin Originality Checking allows educators to check student work for improper citation or potential plagiarism by comparing it against continuously updated databases. Originality Reports provide lecturers with opportunities to teach students proper citation methods as well as to safeguard students' academic integrity.

Large submissions, such as folios of work, large assignments, PEP documentation and videos can be submitted through Turnitin by pasting a link to a shared onedrive folder onto a single header page and/or in the task description box.

Professional Experience Folio

For each PEP unit, students are required to submit a Professional Experience Folio containing materials they have developed during their Professional Experience placement. The Folio will be submitted in an electronic format by uploading a OneDrive link to the Turnitin section on Moodle for the relevant PEP unit. The Folio will include amongst other items, scanned pdf copies of original documents that have been prepared and signed by lecturing and school-based staff.

3.3 Calculation of exit results

In order to receive a passing result a student must fulfil the following requirements:

- submit all assessment tasks as per the unit outline requirements
- achieving a summative exit grade of PASS or above
- attend compulsory activities, experiences or briefings; and
- submit additional evidence as specified in a unit's Assessment Elaboration such as fieldwork reports, folios, completion certificates

All exit results are moderated by the School of Education and Business Examiners' Meeting at the conclusion of each semester. This meeting has the authority to moderate student results to ensure the maintenance of fair and equitable practices both across and within all units.

SECTION 4: PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE PROGRAM (PEP)

4.1 PEP – Bachelor of Education and Master of Teaching courses

4.2 PEP requirements

4.3 Withdrawal from PEP units

4.1 PEP – Bachelor of Education and Master of Teaching courses

The Professional Experience Program (PEP) is designed to engage initial teacher education students in a range of school-based and wider field experiences. These experiences facilitate engagement in real-world contexts and experiences connected to the work of teachers and teaching. All students in the four-year Bachelor of Education and two-year Master of Teaching courses are considered to be 'preservice' teachers and are required to complete a set number of professional experience days.

Mandatory course element: PEP is a mandatory element for all preservice teacher courses and adjustment to the sequence, length and context is not permissible, excluding exceptional circumstances with prior approval by the PEP or Faculty Coordinator.

Placement diversity: The PEP placements must be undertaken in the developmental sequence as described and across a diversity of contexts. CHC will endeavour to place you across a diversity of educational sector, year level, geographic (including regional or remote), socio-economic contexts over the duration of your studies.

GTPA capstone task: The final PEP, PE442/6 and CU661, for the Bachelor of Education and Master of Teaching courses respectively includes a capstone Graduate Teacher Performance Assessment task (GTPA). Successful completion of the GTPA task is one of the explicit requirements for graduation.

More information about PEP can be found in:

- The STUDENT-PEP Portal: a dedicated Moodle portal for all of the documentation required to successfully complete the professional experience requirements of your course.
- The course specific Professional Experience Handbook: provided for the initial teacher education courses through the STUDENT-PEP Portal Moodle site.

The following table summarises the number of supervised professional experience days required for the courses:

	Supervised Professional Experience for continuing enrolments pre-2018		Supervised Professional Experience for commencing enrolments from 2018 onwards
Bachelor courses: BEd (Pri) [ED21] BEd (Sec) [ED23] BA/BEd (Sec) [CC23]	4 x 4-week blocks	80 days	1 x 1-week orientation	5 days

	= 110 days		2 X 4-week blocks	40 days
			1 X 5-week block	25 days
			1 x 6-week block (Internship)	30 days
			= 115 days

	Supervised Professional Experience for continuing enrolments pre-2018	Supervised Professional Experience for commencing enrolments from 2018 onwards
Masters courses: MTeach (Pri) [ED54] MTeach (Sec) [ED55]		1 x 1-week orientation	5 days
		1 x 3-week block	15 days
		2 X 4-week blocks	40 days
		1 X 5-week block	25 days
		= 85 days

4.2 PEP requirements

The following requirements relate to all PEP units:

Blue card and Working with Children Check requirements

The PEP Office must hold all required information about a student's blue card and any other necessary Working with Children Check before enrolment in a PEP Unit can be accepted. Please see Section 1.5 for details regarding blue card and Working with Children Check requirements. Preservice teachers must wear a CHC lanyard (purchased through the PEP Office) and produce their blue card or other necessary Working with Children Check when requested while undertaking school-based placements.

Character and conduct

While CHC partners with schools across state, catholic and independent education sectors, it is the case that especially close partnerships have been developed over many years with independent Christian schools. The highly valued relationships which have been developed because of these partnerships between CHC and numerous schools are integral to the ongoing success of PEP. It is expected that the preservice teachers from CHC will model high standards of personal and professional conduct in all circumstances. In particular, when making decisions regarding the placement of preservice teachers in Christian schools where a commitment to personal Christian faith is an inherent, or genuine occupational requirement of employment by the school, CHC requires preservice teachers to demonstrate personal and professional Christian conduct and character that is of a high standard. Preservice teachers need to consider carefully whether their actions, lifestyle, behaviour or conduct may potentially impact upon their suitability for placement within these specific contexts.

It is also expected that preservice teachers will gain knowledge of and enact relevant organisational requirements that ensure a safe and conducive learning environment, including:

- the CHC Student Code of Conduct;
- the QCT Code of Ethics and Professional Boundaries;
- the codes of conduct (including dress code), work health and safety policies, child protection policies, behaviour management policies and other significant processes of the schools in which professional experience occurs; and
- the PEP Office's professional conduct requirements as stated in the course specific Professional Experience Handbooks.

Cyber conduct

To ensure that their professional behaviour is in keeping with relevant ethical standards and codes of conduct, preservice teachers should also be aware of how their on-line actions can impact upon their professional relationships within school communities. Use of information and communication technologies, such as email, mobile phones, text or instant messaging, blogs, social media (e.g. Facebook, Instagram) and other websites must be undertaken with extreme caution.

Such technologies must only be engaged with for appropriate professional purposes whilst on school campuses, and any personal use of such whilst off school campus, before, during, or after a professional experience, must ensure that there is no reference to a particular school, or member of a school community. In keeping with this, the following points must be adhered to:

- There must be no personal engagement with school students with whom preservice teachers have come into contact or schools within the school community during the PEP via social media or digital technologies, either on, or off school campuses, at any time subsequently.
- Any professional engagement with students via information/digital technologies must be officially sanctioned by the school, via an official school site and for appropriate educational purposes only.
- Preservice teachers must not post, or publish online anything that may bring CHC, themselves, the school at which they are undertaking PEP, or any member of that community, into disrepute.

Academic suitability

In order to be considered for placement in a PEP unit, each student must demonstrate satisfactory academic progress. Teaching requires many personal and professional skills and capacities, including planning, diligence, following advice, implementing established routines and procedures, and so on. A lack of ability in these areas will often be evident in coursework studies. Therefore, failure of two or more units in a single semester will have consequences for preservice teachers' commencement of and progression through PEP units. For example, a preservice teacher who fails first year units might not be permitted to enrol in the first PEP unit until later than normally scheduled in their course.

Prerequisite and corequisite units

Due to the developmental nature of the Professional Experience Program, students are required to follow a particular sequence of units (see Section 8.1).

Students who wish to enrol in a schedule of units which differs from the normal sequence should consult their Course Coordinator and the PEP Coordinator to discuss the proposed schedule. Following this, a written application to the Board of Studies may be required that outlines the reasons for the requested changes to the PEP block and is accompanied by any relevant documentary evidence to support these changes.

Attendance at Professional Experience Program meetings

Each time you engage in a unit that involves a PEP experience you will be required to complete several compulsory activities and attend meetings that are designed to prepare you for the rigorous expectations of the school-based placement. These may include:

- classes that cover relevant academic materials and practices,
- a PEP Briefing (either face-to-face or online) relating to practical matters to be addressed before, during and after PEP, and
- classes that facilitate de-briefing after the professional experience.

You must attend all such meetings and activities to be eligible to complete the professional experience placement. Information regarding these activities and meetings will be provided in Week 1 of each semester.

The information, processes, expectations and skills that are conveyed at these meetings are critical to your potential success as a preservice teacher in the relevant school-based experience.

If you are unable to attend any of the required meetings and activities, you will need to provide a doctor's certificate, or other documentation supporting a valid reason for non-attendance. You will also be required to attend alternative meetings, or complete additional activities to ensure that the required learning and experiences have been undertaken. Acceptance of a preservice teacher's reason for non-attendance will only be granted at the discretion of the Unit Coordinator or PEP Coordinator. Failure to attend to the compulsory meetings and activities may result in withdrawal from the PEP block and subsequent failure of the unit.

4.3 Withdrawal from Professional Experience Program units

Where a preservice teacher is unable to continue a PEP placement (e.g. medical, or personal circumstances) they must contact the PEP Coordinator by email from their CHC email address, or by phone within 24 hours of the decision to withdraw from PEP.

If a preservice teacher withdraws from a PEP unit, they must submit an Application for Change to Unit Selection form. Please note that semester census dates and associated rules apply to all PEP units.

It is important for preservice teachers to understand that the Principal of the school retains the right to withdraw an offer of placement and instruct the preservice teacher to immediately leave the school if the preservice teacher commits a serious breach of school policy, engages in unprofessional conduct, or is unable to engage in the general types of activities and expectations that are inherent, or genuine occupational requirements of the teaching profession. In such circumstances, CHC cannot guarantee that the preservice teacher will be placed in another school during that PEP block. The circumstances will be investigated and discussed with the school and preservice teacher by the PEP Coordinator before any further placement occurs. CHC holds the right to further investigate the matter in relation to the CHC Student Code of Conduct and to determine a final grade for the PEP.

SECTION 5: EVIDENCE FOLIO REQUIREMENTS

5.1 Australian Professional Standards for Teachers

5.2 Evidence Folio requirements

5.1 Australian Professional Standards for Teachers

The Australian Professional Standards for Teachers (APSTs) guide professional learning, practice and engagement. They facilitate the improvement of teacher quality and project a positive public standing of the teaching profession. The standards allow teachers to articulate what they are expected to know at four career stages: Graduate, Proficient, Highly Accomplished and Lead. At the successful completion of the course of study all graduates will be considered at the 'Graduate' standard and can then be eligible for registration as a teacher in the relevant state or territory. The standards also provide a framework which explicitly determines the knowledge, practice and professional engagement that is considered essential across a teacher's career (from "Australian Professional Standards for Teachers", QCT, 2011).

More information about the standards can be found at <http://www.aitsl.edu.au/australian-professional-standards-for-teachers> and https://www.qct.edu.au/PDF/PSU/QCT_AustProfStandards.pdf.

5.2 Evidence Folio requirements

All students enrolled in initial teacher education courses must complete an Evidence Folio that documents their progression towards a 'graduate' level of proficiency in accordance with the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers. The folio forms is considered a capstone assessment task and is incorporated within the final PEP unit within the Master of Teaching courses and the Internship within the Bachelor of Education courses.

This folio of evidence should consist of 5-10 artefacts that demonstrate how the 37 descriptors that are included in the graduate level of the seven standards of the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers have been successfully addressed. This folio can be in a variety of formats and must be made available to the of the Administration Officer (Education courses) within one week of completing the final PEP placement for Master of Teaching students or the internship for Bachelor of Education students.

Details regarding the procedures, processes, format and guidelines that apply to fulfilling the requirements of this Evidence Folio will be provided to students as required. Evidence folios can be commenced in first year and then updated as you progress through your course. You will notice that, in the year level overviews for each course, some possible assessment items have been identified to include in the evidence folio. This is not an exhaustive list, but an indicator of the types of assessment items that can be included in your folio.

6.3 Bachelor of Education (Secondary) (ED23) and Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Education (Secondary) (CC23)

The Bachelor of Education (Secondary) and Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Education (Secondary) are four-year courses (full-time equivalent) and are available on both a full-time and part-time basis. The courses are designed to prepare students for teaching in secondary school contexts by:

- engaging students in teaching and learning within secondary school contexts;
- introducing students to the learning and developmental needs of children between 12-18 years of age; and
- covering the curriculum and pedagogy for, either, two equally weighted teaching areas (Bachelor of Education [Secondary]), or a major teaching area in a Humanities field and a minor teaching area (Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Education [Secondary]).

While the course has an emphasis on teaching in Years 7-12 in the Queensland context, graduates from this course may choose to teach in other Australian or overseas jurisdictions using mutual recognition processes.

A maximum of ten years is allowed to complete course requirements for the Bachelor of Education (Secondary) and the Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Education (Secondary).

Course Structure

The Bachelor of Education (Secondary) and Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Education (Secondary) consist of four strands: Christian Studies, Education Studies, Discipline Studies (including Discipline Content, and Curriculum and Pedagogy) and Professional Experience. The break-down of credit points is:

- Christian Studies 30 credit points
- Education Studies 80 credit points
- Professional Experience 50 credit points
- Discipline Studies 160 credit points, including 120 credit points towards two teaching areas

Strands consist of units at both introductory and advanced levels of study. Generally, advanced units have prerequisite conditions that allow the sequencing of units to achieve progression in content, experiences and levels of difficulty. Unless special permission has been received from the Preservice Education Course Coordinator, students may not enrol in advanced units prior to fulfilling all prerequisite conditions.

Difference between the courses

The difference between the courses relates to the completion of units towards two teaching areas. Students in the Bachelor of Education (Secondary) complete two teaching areas of 60 credit points each, while students in the Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Education (Secondary) complete one teaching area major of 80 credit points in a Humanities area, and one teaching area minor of 40 credit points, as follows:

	Bachelor of Education (Secondary)	Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Education (Secondary)
Majors/Minors	Two majors of six units each comprising: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Maximum of 2 introductory* units• Minimum of 4 advanced* units, including 2 units at 300-level	A major of 8 units comprising: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Maximum of 2 introductory* units• Minimum of 6 advanced* units, including minimum of 2 unit at 300-level A minor of 4 units comprising: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Maximum of 2 introductory* units• Minimum of 2 advanced* units

* Introductory units are those listed as 100-level units and advanced units are those listed as 200- or 300-level units.

Students will need to follow the relevant course structure in order to ensure they complete the required number of credit points in each teaching area.

For the Bachelor of Education (Secondary) CHC currently offers teaching area majors in Business Education, Biblical Studies, Drama, English, Health and Physical Education, History and Mathematics. Students may access cross-institutional enrolment for other teaching areas.

For the Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Education (Secondary) CHC currently offers teaching area majors in Biblical Studies, Drama, English and History, and teaching area minors in Accounting, Business Education, Biblical Studies, Drama, English, Health and Physical Education, History and Mathematics. Students may access cross-institutional enrolment for other teaching area majors and minors.

See Section 8.3 for the units that are available in each teaching area.

7.4 Graduate Diploma in Teaching Studies (ED48)

The Graduate Diploma in Teaching Studies is available as an exit pathway from both the Master of Teaching (Primary) and the Master of Teaching (Secondary). It is intended for students who are enrolled in these courses but who, for personal, professional or other reasons, are not able to complete those courses.

Students who are enrolled in the Master of Teaching (Primary) and the Master of Teaching (Secondary) are able to apply to exit those courses with the Graduate Diploma in Teaching Studies following the completion of 80 credit points of units of the respective courses. This pathway is not available to students who continue their enrolment in the Master of Teaching (Primary) and the Master of Teaching (Secondary).

It is a good general qualification for many areas of work, including community education centres, outdoor education, training settings in industry, not-for-profits and government, adult literacy, libraries, educational research, education policy, and consultancy. It also provides a postgraduate qualification that students may be able to use for admission to courses in fields other than education (subject to course entry requirements).

Students who graduate with the Graduate Diploma in Teaching Studies due to early exit from the Master of Teaching (Primary) or the Master of Teaching (Secondary) and who later wish to complete either of those courses (as applicable to their original course of enrolment) must surrender the testamur for the Graduate Diploma in Teaching Studies.

Students at CHC are assigned a dedicated email address and this will be used to deliver important information and documentation. You will be assigned individualised login details for using Library services and the Moodle learning platform. You are also assigned individual space on the student server for the purpose of data storage. You are expected to check your email and access the Moodle site for relevant class materials and online activities on a regular basis.

All courses offered by CHC require the ongoing use of computer technology. To engage fully with the learning experience for the duration of their studies, students will need to have access to and be able to use internet-connected devices and have reliable connectivity to the internet. Students are expected to find, use and disseminate information, upload and download documents and video and audio files, prepare assessments and presentations, communicate with faculty using CHC student email, and manage and back up files.

9.2 Textbooks

Each semester a textbook list is published on the CHC website along with information about suggested locations where students could purchase the texts. These retailers are not given textbook list requirements by CHC so at times they may not have sufficient stock. Students are expected to source the required readings no later than orientation week. Information about required textbooks is also included in unit outlines. Students will be expected to have all required textbooks available, to read them as required by the lecturer and to use them as relevant in the preparation of assessment tasks. While the CHC Library does maintain copies of all textbooks, class sizes and reading requirements may make it impossible to access the required information as needed for classes in a timely fashion without a personal copy of the textbook.

9.3 Other requirements

Information regarding any additional specific requirements is published in the 'Specialist resource requirements' section in unit outlines.
