Rationale	Many doctrinal, ethical and practical aspects of Christian theology, history and practice originate in the New Testament making it important for ministry students to be familiar with the text and the ways it is interpreted. This unit provides an opportunity to develop approaches and skills in handling biblical evidence and evaluating the contexts of biblical exegesis in ways that can be applied to ministry. It considers interpretation strategies and draws guidelines and inspiration from the New Testament for application to personal faith, ministry and mission today. It also develops an awareness of changing understandings of biblical texts through history and in contemporary contexts. The unit aims to develop a sound basis upon which further study may be developed.
