Rationale	Christianity involves transformed lives, not just assent to Christian beliefs. A person who comes to faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour needs to realise that they have been converted from a position of sin to a position of righteousness. It is from this position of righteousness that they can progressively cease to live out of their own nature and tendencies in order for Jesus and His nature to increase and outwork through them. This repositioning and transformation is the essence of the Christian life. Three critical elements are fundamental to transformation: the Bible being the ultimate basis for understanding the Christian life and containing the words of life; God working through Jesus and the Holy Spirit to reposition and transform the believer; and transformation within personal and corporate settings. Without an understanding of transformation of the whole person the believer will live a life that is less than God intended.
